The quality of time at the birth of a human being in October 2023

Contemporary astrology uses a large number of "influencing factors" for its interpretations, all based on experience, synchronicity and symbolic analogies. Wave astrology, on the other hand, is still very limited, using only the gravitational constellations of the planets. But it starts from a theory which is falsifiable.

A friend had the ambition to integrate all astrological influencing factors known to him into a computer program. Of course, this was very time-consuming. But what was the result? Everything was more or less lost in the noise and no longer allowed any concrete statements.

Today's astrology generally faces this problem.

Can that be changed?

Yes, it can be changed. Without making concrete statements about it here now: An AI can learn which astrological influencing factors are really important for clearly defined statements. This would be a big step towards Kepler's vision of a "scientific astrology". Wave astrology is a first step towards this.

Harmony and disharmony in October 2023

Let's look at the harmony and disharmony in August 2023:

Figure 1; The quality of time in October 2023; full moon is on the 28th, new moon on the 14th.

October begins with small harmonic fluctuations of the Moon, Sun, Mercury and Pluto. This is nothing unusual. Neptune should be noted at this time, it could lead to deception. From October 6, disharmony increases, marked by a prolonged discordant phase of Venus. Pay attention to order in your relationships and friendships here.

From October 15, things become more harmonious and stable again. Use this time for undertakings, which require above all energy and order, also in personal relationships.

From October 25, a disharmonious time begins again, culminating in the full moon on October 28. It is not a favorable time for unfolding, Jupiter does not give a green light for this.

Always consider these indications only as a kind of weather analysis for your sailboat on the ocean. If you are strong enough, you can sail against the wind, that is no question. As Friedrich Schiller already said: "In your breast are your fate's stars". But if you know the "cosmic weather situation" it might be easier to choose a better course. Look below at the framework of the "Astrological Primal Principles". Do you need <ability to do work; drive; energetics; momentum; energy; will; courage to start anew;>, then look at the curve of Mars, in which time space it is harmonious. The curve should be above the middle line.

Also look at the curves of the other planets, maybe they inhibit or promote their activities.

Do not want <resistance; inhibition; stagnation;> in their undertakings, then look at the curves of Saturn, it should not be below the line in the disharmonic area.

The energy to the primordial principles can be found in the figure below.

Astrological Primordial Principles

Energy (astrologically assigned to Mars)
 Ability to do work; drive; energetics; momentum; aggression; Energy; Will; Courage to start anew; Anger, spontaneity, strife;

Harmony (astrologically assigned to Venus) pleasant agreement of the parts of a whole; stability; beauty; love; aesthetics; Convenience; slovenliness; overindulgence;

Information (astrologically assigned to Mercury).
 Exchange of messages in coupled systems; communication; thinking; inquisitiveness; language; lack of concentration; superficiality;

Emotion (astrologically assigned to the Moon)
 Emotional movement; excitement; unconscious; longing; moodiness; depressed mood;

Egocentrism (astrologically assigned to the Sun)
 Center forming; central force; centralism; individualization; strength; ego force; arrogance; egoism; pride; vanity;

Transformation (astrologically assigned to the asteroid belt and alternatively to Pluto)
 Die and become; transformation; regeneration; upheavals; letting go; Tensions; tearing energy; destructivity;

Growth (astrologically assigned to Jupiter).
 Increase; expansion; multiplication; seeking dominion; Development; expansion; immoderation; loss of control;

Concentration (astrologically assigned to Saturn) gathering; crowding together; concentrating; solidifying; striving for stable order; Resistance; inhibition; stagnation;

Spontaneity (astrologically assigned to Uranus) sudden change; flash of thought; dissolution of ossified structures; originality; transformation of all values; eccentricity; chaos;

Reconciliation (astrologically assigned to Neptune).
 Homogenization; reconciliation; selflessness; altruism; Inspiration; deception; disappointment; illusions; addictions;

ATTENTION: These are astrological empirical values which have not yet (to our knowledge) been examined according to scientific criteria. Therefore, they can only be used as a guide for the evaluation of harmony (red) and disharmony (blue) of the planetary curves.

Biographical rhythms from the 60th to the 72th year

A new phase of development (Jupiter) and a phase of maturation (Saturn) begins at the age of 60. In psychology, the 60-year-olds belong to the "young olds". Life turns to the end, the future is clearly shorter than the past.

The active highlights of the previous stages of life are over for many. This new phase of life is ushered in with disharmony. The 60th birthday is a caesura that can sometimes still be passed over according to the motto "You are as old as you feel." This makes sense, because one's own evaluation of growing older has a demonstrable influence on the quality of the coming years and is essential for healthy aging.

Fig. 3. biographical rhythms from 60 to 72

Wisdom of life and growing old correspond with each other. The values of life change again. Growing older and growing old change the way we look at the world. The philosophy of life takes on a deeper dimension, provided that the person deals constructively with the current phase of life and renounces an artificial "staying young - wanting to stay young".

Again "the growing rings" become wider, the spiritual horizon changes again.

It makes sense to recognize that the curve of life is now unmistakably tilting. Companions become seriously ill or die. Drastic illnesses can occur suddenly. The outbreak of an illness cannot be seen in the biographical curves, but it is evident from the curves how the person concerned deals with it.

New questions are emerging. Is it still about development at all? Or about life itself? Is there (still) a meaning?

The harmony of Jupiter and Saturn in the early years of this phase of life is an indication that at this age once again, as in the years from 48 to 60, one's own fruits of life should be generously passed on to the younger generation, provided someone of this generation is receptive. Such a decision implies a new maturity and makes it easier to say goodbye to active working life.

For many, it is a time of letting go of the previous working life or the accustomed life structures, voluntarily through their own insight or coming from outside. Sometimes this also requires a change in the living situation.

You can use the momentum of the early years of this stage of life and already start thinking about "the time after", i.e. not clinging to the familiar, but looking for new opportunities for development, new tasks, which have been neglected so far.

This phase of life is under the principle of Saturn. Saturn had passed the natal position a third time. A new nearly 30-year orbit of Saturn has begun. The 12-year phase is now also subject to Saturn. Saturn is the psychological symbol for concentration and structure, but also for solidification, inhibition and delay. The elemental principle Saturn brings trials in the social, physical or mental-spiritual realm. Saturn is also considered the "god of time."

The Greek form Chronos (time) shows it more clearly as a symbol for the expiration of the time: The life time becomes shorter.

If you want to finish something for yourself or for posterity, you have to concentrate on the essentials. (to be continued)

Albrecht Dürer artistically expressed the archetype Saturn.

Joe Biden versus Donald Trump

Both Joe Biden and Donald Trump are seeking the presidency of the United States of America. This is not a political analysis, just the planetary constellations of the two candidates. What makes them different and what might they have in common?

We look here in a first glance only at the harmony and disharmony of their birth times.

Joe Biden

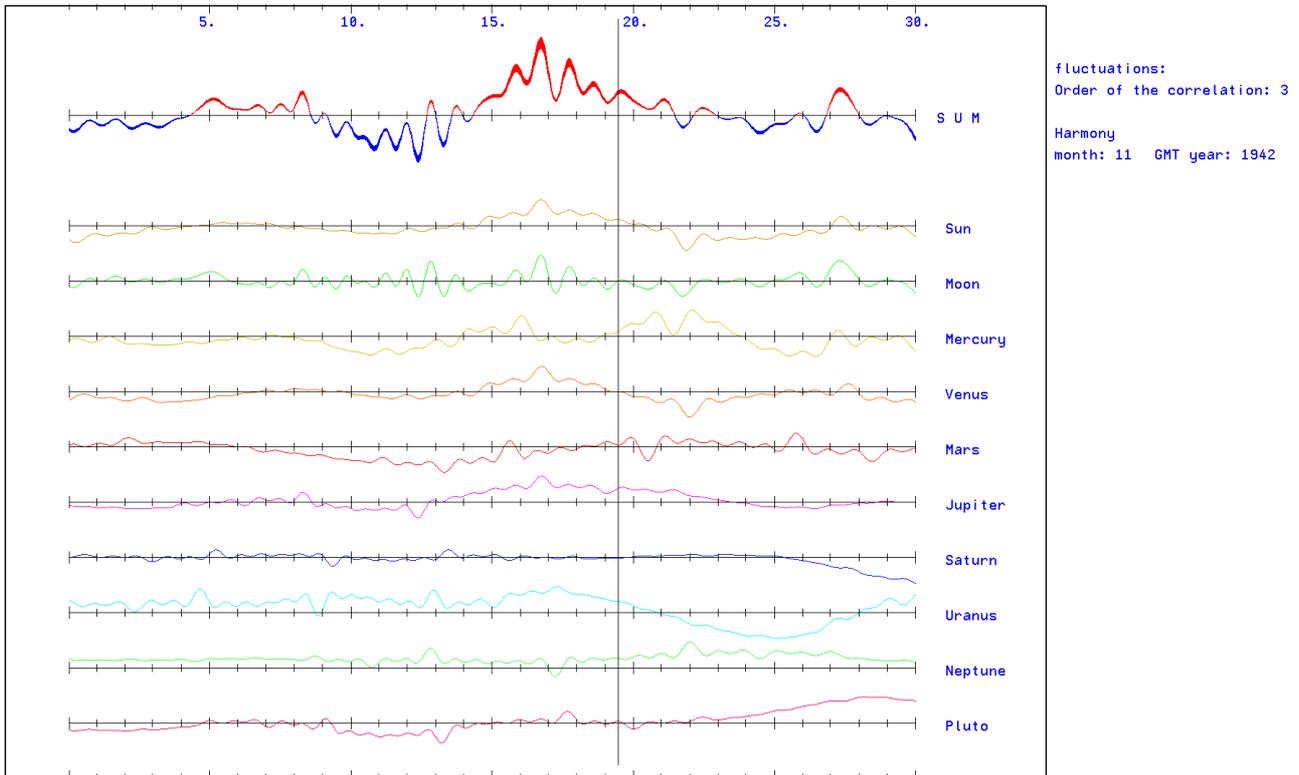

Fig. 4. The time quality for the birth of Joe Biden; the time of birth is marked by a vertical line. Since no exact time of birth is known, 12 noon was assumed.

Biden was born in a longer harmonic quality of time. As research has shown, the time before and after the exact moment of birth is also important. Only about 12% of the 100000 control groups have a higher overall harmonic. As can be seen from the curves, the Sun, Mercury, Jupiter, Uranus and Neptune contribute to the harmonic time quality around the time of Joe Biden's birth.

As can be seen from figure 5, Donald Trump was also born in a harmonic phase of the time quality. The exact time is not known, but it is in a local minimum that is weakly disharmonic.

Disharmonious are the constellations of Sun - Moon, Uranus - Moon and Neptune - Mercury. This may explain, "During the election campaign he attracted the attention of the media with his simple style of speech, provocative statements and radical proposals. (Wikipedia)"

Overall, Donald Trump's Jupiter is also significantly in harmony, favoring a display of power, but not comparable to that of Joe Biden. Donalds Trump has a highly significant harmonic correlation between Jupiter and Uranus that can provide surprises.

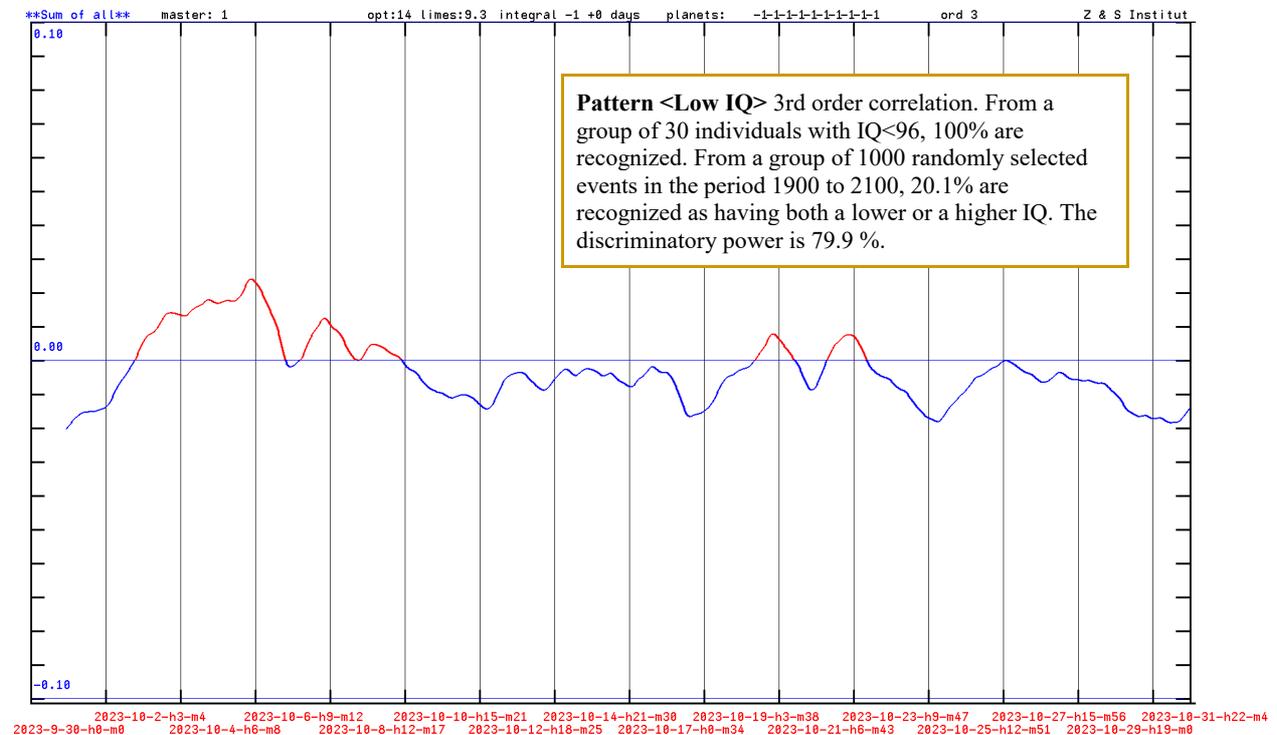

If both presidential hopefuls were considered as a group, a highly significant (0.6%) Jupiter remains the common feature for both. Jupiter increases the probability of power development, although the character of power is determined differently by the other constellations.

The quality of time at the birth of a human being in October 2023

Figure 4: The probability of a higher IQ when a person is born in October 2023. If the curve is above the midline, then this time falls into the "High IQ" pattern for the highly gifted..

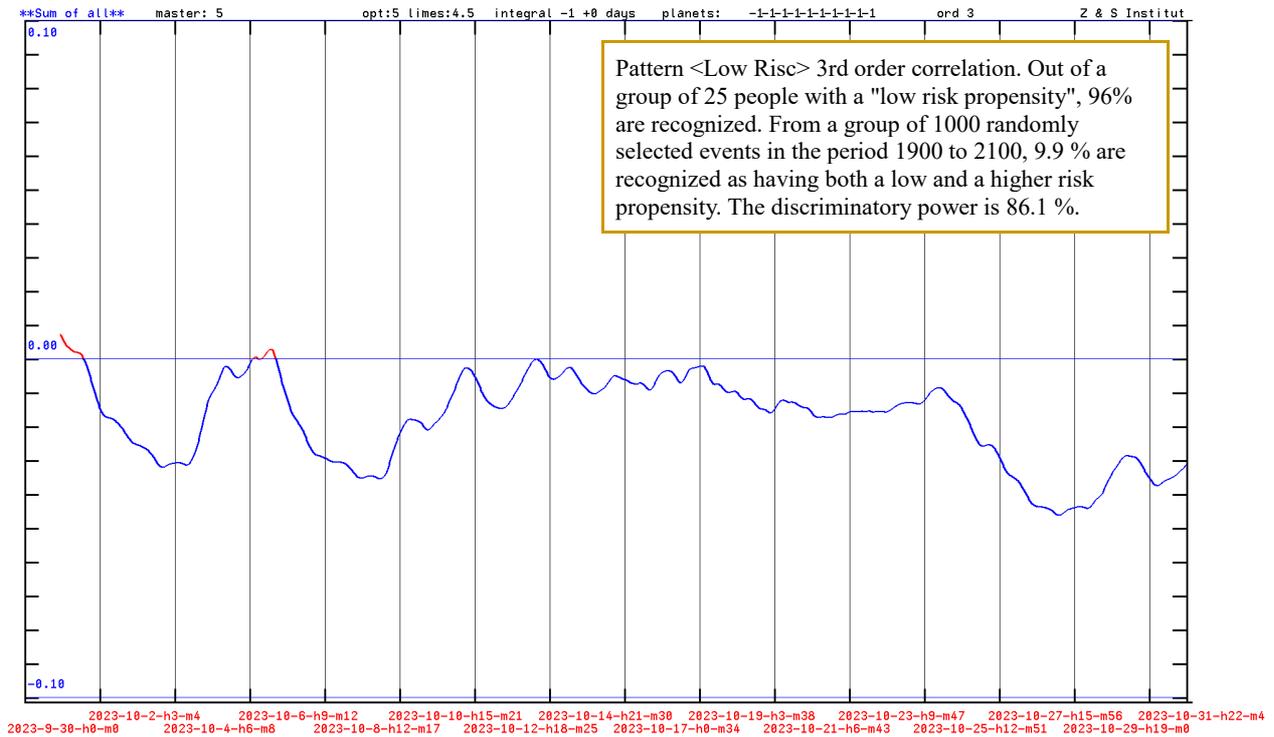

Important: During the whole period children are born with a high and a low intelligence quotient. The curves only indicate the changes in probability.

Figure 5: The probability of low IQ when a person is born in July 2023. If the curve is above the midline, then this time falls within the pattern for low IQ.

Can these curves also be used for the start (birth) of projects?

There is no research on this yet. But it could be a hypothesis.

Figure 6: The probability for the characteristic "low risk-taking/strong need for harmony" when a person is born in August 2023. If the curve is above the center line, then this time falls into the pattern for a "low risk-taking/strong need for harmony".

Even these few, statistically validated research studies indicate that there is still a large field for further investigation. For this purpose, groups of people with the same character traits must be studied. If such groups show significant deviations from the continuum (average), patterns can be created for prognostics.

To the interested readers: If you know such groups of people with special, statistically secured character traits, you can send them to us for testing for significance. If it is a trait that deviates from the average, we can create a sample.

Artificial intelligence in the forecasting of earthquakes in October 2023.

The fluctuating planetary gravitational field influences not only activities of the sun, but also those on earth. A special correlation function describes the harmonics of these fluctuations. Groups of earthquakes form oscillation patterns that differ significantly from randomly chosen control groups. These patterns are suitable as an element of an AI for assessing the probability of earthquakes.

Mattern A

Group of the 41 strongest earthquakes of the last century (1900-2000).

The pattern used here finds 100% from the list of 41 strongest earthquakes. However, 25.8% of the 1000 events are also identified as earthquakes from a randomly selected list. The discriminatory power (difference) from the continuum is 74.2 .

Pattern B

A list of 513 earthquakes (Earthquakes of magnitude 6.5 or greater or those that caused fatalities, injuries or substantial damage. BRK--Berkeley. PAS--Pasadena. ) in the time period 1997-01-05 to 2002-06-18].

82% from the group of 513 earthquakes were recognized as earthquakes. From a randomly selected comparison group of 1000 events, 27% were identified as earthquakes. The comparison group of 1000 events was randomly selected in a time period from 1900 to 2100.

Important: This does not exclude major earthquakes.

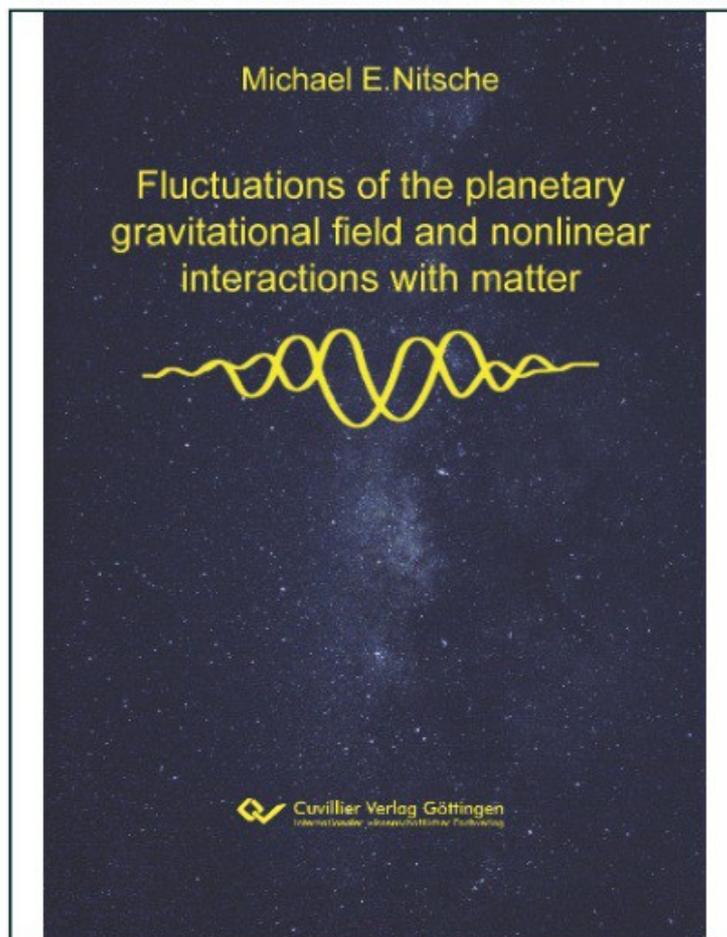

Support the research, buy the book!

In this book, the structure formation of human intelligence, the stability of mental processes, the developmental psychology of humans, social events and crises, but also the triggering of earthquakes are investigated on the basis of the planetary gravitational field. The fluctuating planetary gravitational field forms frequency patterns that can be used for predictions in an artificial intelligence.
